

TUI is committed to maintaining a responsible approach to the environment and nature. The environmental acceptability of products, services and processes is a key element in the TUI quality standards.

News

Climate Protection at TUI Hotels

From 2012 onwards the German Dorfhotels and Iberotels will be offering climate-neutral holidays. By taking concrete measures the hotels have lowered their carbon footprint. Emissions that cannot be avoided will be compensated.

Environment

Environmental Management and Ecological Sustainability

Climate Protection

Climate change, emissions and adaptation: As a globally operating group we are aware that our corporate activities within the chain of business events have effects on the global development of the climate. more ...

Biodiversity

Not only in the eyes of our guests, intact nature includes crystal-clear water and clean beaches, unsullied countryside, viable ecosystems and high species diversity. TUI supports various projects worldwide to protect biodiversity. more ...

Ressources

Wate and energy: Precious and limited ressoures that we depend on. We are committed to a sustainable use. more ...

Environmental Awards

How can a TUI customer recognize environmental friendly hotel offers? Read more on our approach to eco labels and the international TUI Environment award. more ...

Certified Environmental Management

To continuously improve environmental performance as efficiently as possible, the environmental management systems of each Group segment are increasingly modified to comply with international environmental standards. more ...

Environmental Management System

TUI AG has introduced an Environmental Management System according to ISO 14001 in its headquarters in Germany. more ...